

STRIKE CALL PREMATURE-FARRINGTON

ILLINOIS PRESIDENT SAYS LEWIS EXCEEDED AUTHORITY IN MATTER

Government May Take a Hand if the Strike Interferes with Transportation—First Time All Miners Have Been Called Out—Nova Scotia is Not Included in the Call

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 21.—The call for the miners' strike, issued at Indianapolis today, was declared to be premature by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners tonight.

John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, exceeded his authority in making the strike call before next Friday's meeting of the miners' national wage scale committee at Cleveland, Farrington asserted.

The Illinois miners' chief, leader of the anti-Lewis faction within the union, left tonight for Chicago enroute to the Cleveland meeting where, he declared, he and his followers, including leaders from other states, will insist for the right to negotiate separate state wage agreements with the operators.

STRIKE SNAG IN NEGOTIATIONS IS PUBLISHERS CLAIM

Say Trouble Centers Around Certain In-violate Laws

NEW YORK, March 21.—Negotiations between the American Newspaper Publishers' association and the International Typographical Union for a new agreement on wages and working conditions, which expires May 1, have struck a snag, according to a statement issued by the publishers tonight.

The difficulty, the publishers say, centers around certain "in-violate laws" of the union, which the publishers have refused to arbitrate. Chief of these is the bogus rule, which requires that all advertising matter set up outside the newspaper plant shall be reproduced in the plant of the newspaper within four days of the date the matter appeared in print.

The publishers contended that in the past, all questions unfavorable to their interests have been submitted to arbitration while questions deemed by the union to be unfavorable to its side were not submitted to an impartial body if covered in any of the union's laws.

Officials of the union could not be reached tonight but it was said at headquarters of Local No. 6 of the International Typographical Union that nothing was known of a refusal to arbitrate the "bogus" requirements in the present negotiations.

PROBST IS HELD FOR OBSERVATION

NEW YORK, March 21.—Counsel for August Probst, who claims to have been employed as a butler at the fashionable Rolling Rock Club at Legionier, Pennsylvania, named in federal court Miss Virginia Craig Mackay, of Pittsburgh, as the girl whom his client claims was in love with him and on whose account an attempt was made to run him out of the country.

Frank Arrowood, who appeared for the club, denied all the charges. He made the counter-charge that Probst was seen running out of a maid's room about two o'clock one morning.

At the close of the hearing, Judge Knox reserved decision, meanwhile directing that Probst, of Switzerland, be removed from a psychopathic ward at the island until a ruling was made in his case.

He will be detained at the island, however.

ORAL ARGUMENT CLOSED TUESDAY IN PACKERS CASE

Congress Has Gone Wild in This Matter Mayer Says

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Oral arguments were closed in the supreme court today in the case brought by the traders in the Chicago stock yards to test the constitutionality of the packers and stock yards act of 1921.

Levy Mayer appeared as counsel for the opponents of the law and Solicitor General Beck for the government.

Congress in an effort to control the packing industry of the country has gone wild, Mr. Mayer declared, and has attempted to bring under that law traders whose business in 1920 amounted to more than a billion dollars and whose activities were necessary if the producers were to have fair prices by having numerous buyers bidding against each other.

Mr. Mayer asserted the records showed that most of the cattle purchased by the traders did not re-enter interstate commerce and the traders did not know where the livestock went after they sold it.

Justice Brandeis suggested that the traders' transactions were private in nature, and Justice Van Devanter wanted to know if most of the cattle after sale by the traders did not go to be fed on the farm. Mr. Mayer replied that most of the cattle remained at the stock yards to be slaughtered.

"Most of the meat, whether on the hoof or otherwise leaves Chicago in interstate commerce," Chief Justice Taft interjected.

Mr. Mayer cited numerous decisions of the court to sustain his contention that the interstate character of the incoming movement of the livestock had ended at the stock yards before the traders made their purchases and that whatever interstate feature may attend the subsequent movement of the livestock, or its products, did not begin until after the trader had sold the cattle.

Solicitor General Beck declared the opponents of the law had not challenged its constitutionality as an entirety and he insisted that the stock yards are the terminal point of interstate commerce, and had been held such by the supreme court. Should the court hold the contrary, the stock yards would not be subject to federal control he contended the stock yard industry would then pass under the state supervision.

President Farrington declared that the miners of District 12 (Illinois) would take no action on the proposal of Illinois operators for a separate agreement until after the Cleveland meeting and he declined to discuss what policy would be pursued in Illinois if the right to negotiate separate state agreements is denied by the national scale committee.

No attempt will be made to operate Illinois coal mines in the event of a strike, April 1, James Burns, commissioner for the Illinois coal operators' association asserted tonight. If the strike becomes effective the Illinois mines will be closed, he declared.

Coal supplies sufficient to last ninety days are above ground in Illinois, Mr. Burns said.

Indiana, Ind., arch 21.—A formal call for a suspension of work by all union coal miners, issued today from the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America, directs all members of the organization employed in and around the anthracite and bituminous coal producing districts to discontinue work and cease production of coal at midnight on Friday, March 31, 1922.

The suspension, the order added would continue until terminated by action of the policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America, and until officers of the 3,000 union locals scattered throughout the country have been advised as to the committee's action.

"In accordance with district and local agreements local unions must permit a sufficient number of men to remain at work to insure the proper care and protection of all mining property. Pumpers, engineers and others necessary to protect the property must be allowed to remain at work. The fullest cooperation must be given mine management in order to safe guard and protect, and under no circumstances should this rule be violated or set aside by local unions."

The union's policy committee will meet next Friday at Cleveland to consider plans for the suspension.

The concluding paragraphs of the call read:

"The present situation in the mining industry calls for the exercise of good judgement, moral courage and loyalty by every member of the United Mine Workers of America. Orderly procedure must be followed at all times. There must be no violation of law, no disturbance of any public peace, no guilting in any of your actions by the non-see of your organization and follow out the instructions and orders given you by the duly accredited officers of your union."

Copies of the call were sent to every district of the union excepting Nova Scotia, where it was said that arrangements had been made for the men continuing at work.

SPEAKER CONSENTS TO SUSPEND RULES IN HOUSE THURSDAY

Soldier Bonus Measure Will Be Taken Up at That Time

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Speaker Gillett consented today to permit the compromise soldiers bonus bill to be taken up in the house Thursday under a suspension of the rules. It is the plan to have the final vote before adjournment that day after four hours of general debate divided equally between opponents and proponents. A two thirds majority will be necessary to pass the bill under this procedure but those in charge of the legislation predicted that they would have votes to spare. By this method the majority will succeed not only in shutting out all amendments but also in preventing the Democrats from offering a motion to recommit the bill.

The parliamentary plan for the handling of the measure was determined upon today by Mr. Gillett and Chairman Campbell of the rules committee. Mr. Campbell's committee will meet tomorrow morning to draft a rule making Thursday suspension day and increasing the time for debate under the suspension from usual 40 minutes to four hours.

To Present Special Rule

The special rule will be presented immediately after the house convenes on Thursday. Mr. Campbell said but whether any debate on it will be permitted has not yet been decided. A majority vote only will be required to adopt the rule which Democratic leaders said would be opposed almost solidly by their side.

With the rule adopted the next step would be for Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee who will be in charge of the bill to move to suspend the rules and pass the measure, thus opening the way to general debate on the bonus itself. After four hours the final roll would be ordered.

Speaker Gillett said he thought it would be just as well not to open the way for the Democrats to offer a motion on the bill, which would have to be permitted unless the rules were suspended. He pointed out that in their minority report the Democrats had urged that the bonus be maintained by an excess profits tax and increased surtaxes.

Those in charge of the legislation to anticipate little or no difficulty in executing their program on the floor and to believe that by Thursday night the problem with which they have been wrestling for several months would be off their hands.

SHOULD RETAIN THE BASIC PRINCIPLES OF THE COMMITTEE

This is Opinion of Officers of Grain Growers Association

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 21.—The basic principles of the committee of seventeen which outlines the plan under which the United States Grain Growers, Inc., was formed, should be retained in the future conduct of the organization, officers of the growers asserted today in opening the first annual convention. Both President C. H. Gustafson and Secretary Frank M. Myers, stressed that the grain growers should follow the program prepared by the organizing committee. Mr. Gustafson told the delegates that what you do at this meeting will either make or break the organization.

While declaring that the grain-grower should not try to "become associated with other cooperative organizations which would try to dilute its policies," the president asserted on the details and problems that concern us differently and then working wholeheartedly together on those problems which are of mutual concern.

The nearly sixty delegates attending the convention have the authority to cast a total of 41, 710 votes representing the membership on January 1, this year. Since that time Mr. Gustafson said the membership has increased to more than 50,000.

The voting strength of states represented follows:

Colorado 804; Illinois 10,251; Indiana 4,465; Iowa 3,446; South Dakota 330.

Today's session largely were taken up with organization and the routine matters with most of the important gathering, remaining to be thrashed out tomorrow.

Lively discussion is anticipated in the pooling issue. The president's address was taken as indicating opposition to any move toward pooling or cooperation with other marketing agencies based upon 100 percent pool.

HOUSE REDUCES ARMY OFFICERS TO 11,000 MEN

Adjourns to Sharpen Knife Before Tackling Personnel

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 21.—After approving a clause in the army appropriation bill which provides that by July 1, the number of regular army officers must be reduced from approximately 13,000 to 11,000 the house adjourned late today as it was about to plunge into a fight over the enlisted strength. A vote on proposals to slash the enlisted personnel which now approximates exclusive of 7,000 Philippine scouts to 115,000 or less is expected tomorrow.

Standing by the recommendations of the sub-committee which drafted the bill the house in quick succession rejected three amendments which sought to fix the officer strength at different levels. One of these, a proposal by Representative Hull, Iowa, a Republican member of the military affairs committee to fix the maximum at 12,000 was voted down 115 to 65.

When the house quit work for the day it had before it a series of amendments which would increase the allowance for the officers reserve corps. The bill carries $250,000 for salaries.

Will Be Ready for Enlisted Men

Once these amendments are disposed the house will be ready for a skirmish over the enlisted strength. The framers of the bill have provided for a reduction to 115,000 men exclusive of the 7,000 Philippine scouts.

Chairman Kahn of the military affairs committee, who has declared his approval of war department recommendations for 150, 000 men has indicated he will offer an amendment to provide pay for a force of that size while Representative Sisson, Democrat of Mississippi has announced he will propose that the enlisted personnel be cut to 100,000 men.

During the discussion of officer strength today Republican members of the military affairs committee generally came to the support of Mr. Kahn.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The artificial advantage which the "Pittsburgh plus" steel rates gives the eastern manufacturer over his competitor in the Chicago district would be more than offset if factories in this district could buy their raw material on a Chicago base rate, H. E. White, traffic expert of the Association of Western Rolled Steel Consumers testified at the federal trade commission today.

Mr. White analyzed the testimony given yesterday by George E. Lasker of the Lasker Iron Works; Eugene Heller, president of the Hill Pump and Valve Company, and today by E. D. Norman, president of the automatic screw machine products company.

The advantage which eastern manufacturers have over the Lasker company in other cities, cited by Mr. White, included 7 cents a hundred pounds in Milwaukee; 14 cents at Minneapolis and St. Paul; 31 cents at St. Louis; 17 cents at La Crosse, Wis.; 3 1-2 cents at Kansas City and Omaha and 8 1-2 cents at Des Moines.

Analyzing the testimony of Mr. Norman and Mr. Heller regarding their efforts to compete with rival makers of standard automobile nuts in the principal automobile centers Mr. White said a competitor of the two firms, located in Cleveland, enjoyed a rate advantage due to the Pittsburgh plus system of:

Detroit 42 cents per hundred pounds; Flint, Mich. 37 1-2 cents; Lansing 27 1-2 cents; Muskegon 27; Kokomo 25 1-2; Indianapolis 19 1-2; Marion 29; Auburn 32; Connersville 29; Muncie 32; Kenosha 19; Racine and Milwaukee 11 1-2.

W. W. Corlett, general solicitor of the United States Steel corporation questioned Mr. Norman about the source of supply of the cold rolled bars which he buys from the Chicago mills and brought out that the local rolling mills buy their hot rolled Bessemer bars from the Pittsburgh district and are charged "Pittsburgh plus" rates by the western mills.

"PITTSBURGH PLUS" STEEL RATE GIVES EAST AN ADVANTAGE

Traffic Expert for the Western Rolled Steel Consumers Says Could be Offset if Raw Material Could Be Bought at Chicago Base Rate—Rate in Various Cities Given

BRITISH CLAIM IS BEING GIVEN CONSIDERATION

U. S. Question Claim of Sovereignty Over Wrangel Island

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Claims of British Sovereignty over Wrangel Island, in the Arctic Ocean northwest of Bering Straits, recently advanced by Vilhalmur Stefansson (his 1-7-21) as a result of his landing expedition there last September, are being given serious consideration by the American government. It was said today at the state department.

Chief interest of the American government in the island, it was learned was due to its strategic position from the standpoint of economic and commercial developments.

The American government repeatedly has gone on record as opposed to any nation obtaining undue economic advantage in any part of Russia it was pointed out and belief was expressed that the United States would endeavor to determine whether any of its own rights or those of Russia in the island did not take precedence over all other claims.

In the British fiscal year of 1922-23 the budget is expected to show a saving of 70,000,000 lbs. of which 25,000,000 lbs. will be set aside as a first installment of interest on the British debt to the United States. That sounds good and we hope the other debtor countries will carefully note what Great Britain is doing.

As a step toward a business-like balance sheet for the government, the Navy Department has completed an inventory of all its ships and other property. It finds that the cost of all vessels built and building, and all short stations and other equipment on hand January 1, 1922, was $3,082,707,908 on June 30, 1921, the close of the last fiscal year. If the other departments follow the lead of Secretary Denby the people will soon know what they have invested in the Federal machine.

Labor costs on Federal-aid projects under construction this year indicate that there will be no drawback along this line in the building of roads during the coming season, according to the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture.

The price for common labor ranged around 25 and 30 cents an hour in a great majority of the states, being somewhat lower in the southern states and going up to nearly 50 cents an hour in the Pacific states. The price of teams reported were in a great many instances as low as the 1914 level. It is probable, however, that there will be an increase when the farming season begins, as teams have always been cheaper in winter.

The announcement of the withdrawal of Charles W. Boston from the race for Democratic nomination for sheriff came as a distinct surprise in political circles. The result will be to give added interest to the local field and cause wondering as to whether or not there will be any changes among the contestants.

This suspense, however, will not last long, for this is the final day for withdrawal.

Mr. Boston was looked upon as a formidable contender for Democratic honors. He is well and favorably known throughout the county and while serving as a public official made an excellent record.

The call for the suspension of mining has been issued by International President John L. Lewis. Naturally Mr. Farington of Illinois says that the call was unauthorized but the chances are just about 100 to 1 that the shut down will come on the scheduled date.

Meanwhile quite extensive preparations have been made for the non-producing coal period. Railroads have stored largely, as have the manufacturing concerns that use coal in big quantities.

Certainly one paragraph in the shut down call is worthy of commendation for Mr. Lewis is insistent that there must be no disturbance and that all laws must be strictly observed. If the officers can enforce this law they will go quite a long way in helping their cause with the people.

FRANCE DEFLATES GRADUALLY.

France has taken the initial step in financial reform by lowering the rate of interest on government indebtedness. Deflation in France is expected to be a continuing process from now on. Other countries where the currency has stiffened tremendously are taking similar measures if they choose to do so. There are plenty of ways in which Europe can retrain and reform in other directions without calling in the United States to aid. When such policies are well under way it will be time enough to ask this country to attend a conference on rehabilitation. But the Genoa call came at a time when there was little indication that Europe was doing much to help herself, so was very properly declined by the American Government.

BIG CELEBRATION AT GREENE COUNTY HOME

White Hall, March 20.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Steelman, residents of Patterson, was celebrated Sunday with a gathering of relatives and friends in the Steelman home, the attendance being somewhat curtailed by stormy weather. The feast was preceded by prayer and a short talk by Rev. J. O. Raines of White Hall.

Both are natives of Patterson township. They were married by the late Isham Roberts. The couple comes from a line of pioneers of northern Greene county. REV. H. HALLERBERG RESIGNS PASTORATE

Former Pastor of Salem Lutheran Church to Give Up Ministerial Work Because of Ill Health—Will Visit in This County

The Farmington, (Mo.) News of recent date mentions the fact that Rev. Herman Hallerberg has resigned his pastorate there on account of ill health. Rev. Mr. Hallerberg was for a number of years pastor of Salem Lutheran church in this city and has many friends in this locality.

It is understood that he will come to Morgan county and take an extended rest at the home of his brother-in-law, Fred Moeller, of Orleans neighborhood, before entering again upon ministerial work. The Farmington paper's statement is as follows:

"At a special meeting of the voting members of the congregation held on last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Herman Hallerberg, pastor of the Farmington Lutheran church for the past seven years, tendered his resignation which was reluctantly accepted. Rev. Hallerberg has labored faithfully and hard in his work as pastor of the congregation here and for the past two or three years his health has not been at all good, he being under the continuous care of a doctor.

"He finally decided, upon the advice, also of the doctor, that he must have a good long rest and that it would be unwise and indeed impossible for him to continue at this time to carry on the work of the congregation as he felt it should be. Hence his resignation and the acceptance of the same, to go into effect at once.

"However, the pastor will once more occupy the pulpit next Sunday, preaching both morning and afternoon, and administer Holy Communion in the afternoon service, which will be his last service in Farmington. The pastor and family will go to relatives in and near Jacksonville, Ill., where he was formerly in charge of a congregation, for a much needed rest, after which he intends to serve in the ministry of the Lutheran church.

"The church here has prospered under the pastorate of Rev. Hallerberg. The new parsonage was erected under his leadership and the new pipe organ installed. The church is in a very flourishing condition. His many friends here will wish for him a speedy return to good health and that he will soon again be at the work which is so near to him and which he so much delights in.

"The local congregation will be ministered unto for the present by professors or students from Concordia Seminary until a new pastor can be secured."

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT IN ZACHARY CASE

Hearing in Effort to Secure Release of Accused Man to Be Held at Jerseyville.

A petition for writ of habeas corpus was filed in the office of Circuit Clerk Vanamaker yesterday by Wilson & Butler in behalf of Samuel T. Zachary, who is in jail charged with the murder of Luther Crawford. In the absence of the presiding judge the petition was taken before the master in chancery who according to the customary procedure ordered the circuit clerk to issue a writ to the sheriff. The writ was served by Constable Ben T. Scott.

In accordance with arrangements subsequently made, Sheriff Weatherford will take Mr. Zachary to Jerseyville next Friday and place him in the custody of the court. Judge E. S. Smith will be presiding in the Jersey county circuit court at that time. The petition for habeas corpus is supported by the affidavits of S. T. Zachary, Helen Zachary, Reuben Raines and Frank Waltman.

The affidavits are identical with those filed recently in the circuit court, asking the release of Mr. Zachary on bail. The affidavits purpose to show that Mr. Zachary in his attack on Luther Crawford last November acted in self-defense.

AMERICAN WOMEN ARE CARELESS.

Women are too apt to overestimate their strength and overtax it. When feeling well they take unnecessary chances, which in the long run causes much pain and trouble. Wet feet, exposure to cold, lifting heavy burdens and overwork will often develop troubles which cause no end of suffering. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing remedy in such cases. Thousands of American women will testify to this fact who have regained health and strength by its use. If you are suffering it will pay you to give it a fair trial. Adv.

C. W. BOSTON FILES WITHDRAWAL NOTICE

Will Not Make Race for Democratic Nomination for Sheriff.—Well Known Candidate Gives Reasons for Action in Statement.

Formal notice was filed late Tuesday afternoon in the office of County Clerk Riggs by Charles W. Boston, announcing his withdrawal as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff.

Mr. Boston's petition was filed by a number of his friends on the final day for filing, after he had been repeatedly urged to make the race. He was very reluctant at that time to take the matter up and said yesterday that he had been considering the matter carefully for days past and was fully determined that the best course for him to follow was to withdraw from the race.

Mr. Boston made it clear that he was not withdrawing because of special discouragement over the probable results, but because of his knowledge that he would not be in a satisfied frame of mind in discharging the duties of sheriff.

Mr. Boston's statement given below with reference to his withdrawal will be read with interest:

I have filed a request with the county clerk to withdraw my name as a candidate for the nomination for sheriff, and this statement is made for the purpose of placing my reasons for so doing before the people.

I have had no desire to be Sheriff of Morgan county and although I have of recent weeks been urged by many friends. Not only Democrats, but persons of other party affiliations as well, to enter the race, yet through it all my better judgment told me not to do so, and I have decided not to run but on the last day for filing petitions a number of my friends were so insistent and determined that finally, with reluctance, I permitted the petition to be prepared and filed knowing it could be withdrawn later if I so determined.

The information I have received from various sources since the filing of the petition gives me no reason to be discouraged with the prospect of my nomination and election, but my first convictions ever remain with me and I cannot make a whole-hearted enthusiastic fight for an office, in which if elected, I feel I could not discharge my full duty with pleasure and satisfaction to myself.

I began active work as a candidate, but the further I proceeded in the campaign the less interest and enthusiasm I had in the work and the more anxious I became to be rid of so long and disgraceful a fight. I did not want to run before my friends filed the petition and I do not want to run since they filed it.

My wife has never looked with favor upon my making this race for sheriff, and this of itself is sufficient reason for at least contemplating this action.

The law provides for a candidate filing a request for the withdrawal of his name and being unable to become greatly interested in the result of the campaign myself, I know I should withdraw.

I was the Democratic candidate for Circuit Clerk in 1916, and was elected and again in 1920, at which time my party defeated me and I do not feel that I am now under any political or moral obligation to become a candidate for nomination for an office, which said office has been selected for me to run for by my friends and only about sixteen months ago I was defeated for re-election, when at this time I have no desire to run for the office selected, namely that of sheriff.

In my previous campaigns I worked hard and was able to show results, but we have such poor and incomplete party organization that the women voters, especially of the country precincts, that there is but little encouragement for an ambitious candidate to devote 8 or 9 months of his time and quite a sum of money necessarily incident to so long a campaign.

This is my free and voluntary act and in it I assure them that their interest and friendship shall not be forgotten, but feeling as I do in this matter and knowing with what reluctance and lack of enthusiasm I permitted the filing of the petition I am certain this is the proper action for me to take and this is not an easy thing for me to do.

Respectfully,
C. W. Boston.

MADE ONLY AT MERRIGAN'S

LATEST BOOK BY EDGAR LEE MASTERS HAS LOCAL COLOR

The most recent book by Edgar Lee Masters, "Children of the Market Place," is receiving favorable comment the country over. The New York Sunday World in a recent issue carried a column review written by Owen Langdon.

The last novel by the now famous author has its local coloring because various scenes are laid in Scott and Morgan counties and some of the storied happenings took place in Jacksonville and Winchester.

"Children of the Market Place" has been termed a compound of fiction and dated facts, and is a study of men and events from 1833 to 1900, with a story of engaging interest intertwined.

James Miles, an orphan of 18, who emigrates to Illinois in the early days, is the central character in the story. Mr. Langdon in his interesting review uses these paragraphs:

"Vague, shadowy, tenuous people move thru this kaleidoscope of shifting life in the New World. None of them are more than lay figures to hang facts upon."

Stephen A. Douglas came nearest to realization as an appealing human figure, tho of course Lincoln as he shone in the Lincoln-Douglas debate is also described. There is much plain speech about drinking habits, as when Miles and Douglas in an evening's talk nearly finish a quart of whiskey between them. Lincoln was four years older than Douglas, but in fact younger because he drank less.

"Hardly a notable book that appeared between 1840 and 1900 fails to receive Mr. Master's mention. Darwin's 'Origin of Species,' Hinton Rowan Helper's 'Impending Crisis,' curiously called 'Help-ers' the 'Impending Crisis'; Mrs. Stowe's 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' which 'won Macaulay and Longfellow and George Sand and stirred the heart of Heine. If Einstein's theory of relatively had appeared forty years earlier Mr. Masters would have explained it in this book—and explained it well."

SECRET AGREEMENT TALK FLICKERS OUT IN SENATE DEBATE

Avalanche of Denials Bury Opponents of Pact Tuesday

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 21.—The twenty-four denials over suggestions of a secret British-United States "agreement" suddenly flickered out today in the senate. Formal denials emanating from many sources from the white house down showered in upon opponents of the four power Pacific Treaty as they were preparing to ask for a formal investigation and apparently ended the whole incident.

At the white house officials said flatly there was no secret agreement of the character suggested. Secretary Hughes in a letter read in the senate characterized the suggestion as "absolutely false."

Paul D. Cravath, the New York attorney whose statement started the row, sent a telegram saying he had been incorrectly quoted and had no knowledge of any "secret understanding." Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, who presented the Cravath statement to the senate yesterday said that only what he read was a stenographic transcript of Mr. Cravath's remarks and that the explanation now made would not be accepted in any court. No one defended the New York attorney and the discussion drifted to other issues of the treaty fight.

The purpose of some of the "irreconcilables" to make the incident the basis for a fight to send the treaty back to committee apparently had been abandoned to-night. Some Senators however, thought a motion to recommit should be as a matter of form and it was generally predicted that such a step will be taken before the ratification vote is reached Friday. Administration leaders say they are certain to defeat the motion overwhelmingly.

Hughes Expresses Hope. Mr. Hughes concluded his five sentence letter with the hope "that the American delegates will be saved further aspersions upon their veracity and honor."

In the debate which followed there was no reference to the letter or to Secretary Hughes. General discussion then proceeded throughout the day with only a small percentage of the senate members present and with very little give and take argument mixed with the succession of long addresses.

Tomorrow when a one hour limit on speeches goes into effect under a unanimous-consent agreement, prepared addresses are to be made by Senators LaFollette, Republican, Wis., and Walsh, Democrat, Mass., and probably also by Senators Shortridge, Republican, Calif., Smith, Democrat, of South Carolina and McCormick, Republican of Illinois.

Voting was in order today on pending amendments and reservations but there was no attempt to press toward a roll call. It was said at least one of the proposals might be voted on tomorrow after the final vote on ratification is taken Friday the administration on leaders expect to ask immediately for a ratification roll call on the supplemental treaty defining the scope of the four power agreement. The naval limitation treaty is to be next on a program of priority decided on by the leaders leaving the Chinese treaties until the last.

MAKING SURVEY OF FOREST AREAS

R. B. Miller Writes of Work in March Issue of Illinois Journal of Commerce.

CHICAGO.—(By the A. P.)—The state natural history survey of Illinois has now in active progress a systematic survey of the forest areas of the state. R. B. Miller, state forester, writes in the March issue of the Illinois Journal of Commerce.

"This survey," Mr. Miller writes, "is being carried on by a party of trained foresters, who are making careful counts and measurements of the different kinds of trees on sample strips of plots to get the data for a computation, for each kind of tree, of the number of board feet of merchantable timber per acre, and the number of cubic feet per acre, suitable for railroad ties, mine props and firewood."

"The information obtained will be published—together with general descriptions illustrated by photographs and maps, of the kinds and condition of the various forest areas—in a bulletin of the state natural history survey. Other studies are being made of the rate of growth of the different species of trees on different soils and under different conditions, to soil, slope and drainage, the whole investigation being in the nature of a stock-taking of Illinois woodlands for a determination of their value as public and private resources."

"Statistics are also being collected upon the consumption of lumber by the different wood-using industries of the state, the local supplies available for each and the length of time which these will last at present rates of use."

"The forest survey will also report upon the kind of propagation most necessary to maintain production, the most important phase of which is evidently protection against damage by fire. These studies will presently be extended to deforested areas in order that normal agricultural lands may be clearly distinguished from those which should be kept in forest or restocked with trees as the most profitable use of which they can be put. The survey party is now at work in the forested area of extreme southern Illinois, but will later extend its operations to the Mississippi bluffs, and over the broken lands bordering the more important streams within the state."

ILLNESS OF WIFE POSTPONES TRIAL OF JOHN D. DODGE

Suffers Nervous Breakdown In Court at Kalamazoo, Michigan

(By The Associated Press) KALAMAZOO, Mich., March 21.—The trial of John Duval Dodge, charged with driving a motor car while intoxicated, was interrupted late today when Mrs. Dodge suffered a nervous breakdown and had to be taken to a hospital. At the request of Harry C. Howard, Dodge's attorney an adjournment until 9 a. m., tomorrow was taken.

The prosecution had concluded presentation of its case and two witnesses for the defense had been called when the session ended. The court had planned to complete the case today.

Robert Temple and Chaucer Brown testified Dodge was sober on the night of his arrest.

The prosecution's chief witnesses were Britt Preston, deputy sheriff who arrested Dodge after a joyride March 11, and Patrolman Sherman Heywood. Both declared the youthful millionaire was intoxicated.

Miss Ethel Clemens and Miss Sue Stegenga, who, with Miss Emmaline Kwakernaak, a Western State Normal student, accompanied Dodge and Rex Earl on the midnight ride, also were witnesses for the state. They told of accepting the young men's invitation believing they would be taken to their homes. Instead, they said Dodge, who was driving, sped into the country "to show us how fast the car could go." Earl took several drinks during the ride, they declared, but Dodge declined, as did the young women.

Miss Kwakernaak who jumped from the machine when she became alarmed and sustained injuries, was not called today. She has been subpoenaed by the defense.

Dodge's attorney indicated the defendant probably would be placed on the stand tomorrow. The opening of the case brought the largest crowd into municipal court that has ever attended a trial here.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Dr. John Dill Robertson, former health commissioner, announced tonight that he would be unable to serve on a committee named by Governor Len Small to investigate charges of an alleged traffic in physicians and pharmacists licensing owing to his duties in connection with the pageant of progress, of which he is head. Dr. Robertson said that he had suggested to the governor that Dr. Charles E. Hamiston, president of the state medical society, or Dr. W. Evans, former health commissioner, be named on the committee. There were three physicians including Dr. Robertson, on the original committee named by Governor Small.

RICKARD ON TRIAL IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, March 21.—An undersized, tousel-haired girl in short dresses, Sarah Schoenfeld, just over 15 years old, sat in a witness chair in supreme court for more than two hours today and told Justice Wesservogel and jury of alleged assaults upon her by George L. (Tex) Rickard, internationally known sport promoter.

As she recited her story in a lisping voice the man who had arranged some of the greatest pugilistic encounters in history sat with arms folded staring at her. Only occasionally did he relax and then to whisper in his counsel's ear or to make notes with a pencil.

Abe Reid of north of the city was in Jacksonville yesterday on a business mission.

Batteries Wear Out for Two Good Reasons

Every battery has two kinds of wear—the natural slow wear due to use, and the more rapid wear that comes from abuse.

Keep the proper amount of water in your battery by putting in a little every two weeks. Test with the hydrometer to make sure there's enough charge. Come in to Battery Headquarters at the first faint sign of trouble.

Then your battery will wear out slowly and gradually, giving you all the months and miles of uninterrupted service there are in it.

Stop—Have your battery tested—We'll give you best advice.

AMERICAN LEGION
IN REGULAR SESSION

The local American Legion post held a regular monthly social meeting Tuesday evening at the post headquarters on the north side of the square. Various matters of business were given consideration, and afterward came a social hour and the serving of refreshments.

It was announced that the Legion will have charge of the dance at the Auto Inn both Tuesday and Friday evenings of next week, when the auto show will be in progress.

The matter of the Gold Star tablet to be installed in the Duncan Memorial and bearing the names of all war heroes, was taken up and the post went on record as endorsing the project. A substantial donation is to be made to this movement.

The Legion is to join with the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the purchase of a piano for the use of the ex-service men who are patients at Oak Lawn sanatorium.

A special effort is to be made to have all old members of the post pay their dues for this year and thus become members in good standing. Two lists of names are on the bulletin board, one bearing the names of last year's members and the other this year's. This is to remind the old members that if they have not paid their dues they are no longer members.

WOODS RESTAURANT
SCENE OF HOLDUP
TUESDAY EVENING

Unmasked Robbers Stick Up Proprietor and Two Employees and Get Away With $25 in Cash—Robbery Occurred About Midnight and the Men Made Clean Getaway

Two unmasked robbers secured $25 in a holdup of the Woods restaurant in East Morgan street, staged about midnight Tuesday.

Only Mr. Woods, Thomas Clancy and George Beerrup, the latter employees of the place, were in the restaurant when the robbers entered. Mr. Woods had just fixed the fire and the other two were sitting down by the stove.

Mr. Woods said they walked back to the stove and he looked at them and thought they were a couple of tramps looking for something to eat. When they got right up to the stove one of them said, "We have tried to get something to eat in every place in town and we are going to get something here."

With this he shoved a gun against Woods' body. While he held the men under the gun his companion turned the cash register around on the counter and emptied it. Mr. Woods had about $15 in a sack and about $10 in change in the various compartments.

After securing the contents of the register the men did not attempt to search Mr. Woods and his companions or look further for money, but backed to the front door. They jumped outside and turned east. Not knowing whether they were lying in wait or not, Mr. Woods did not attempt to go out for a few minutes.

When he did the men were not in sight and he is of the opinion that they ran south between his restaurant and the residence to the east. Mr. Woods ran to the Zahn garage and called the police station and notified them of the robbery.

Capt. Elliott and the night force immediately started on a search for the bandits and telephone messages were sent to nearby towns to be on the lookout for them. At the time of going to press no trace had been found of the men.

According to Mr. Woods the men looked like tramps. Their faces were dirty as tho they had just gotten off a train. They wore blue overalls and were rather small in stature. He judged one of them about 23 and the other about 19 years of age. He is confident he would be able to identify them.

COUNTY IN RECEIPT OF SHARE OF STATE FUND

County Superintendent of Schools Receives Check From State Auditor Russell for County's Share of Distributive Fund.

County Superintendent of Schools H. H. Vasconcellos is in receipt of a check for Morgan county's share of the $8,000,000 state school distributive fund, and the money is to be distributed among the schools of the county at an early date.

The county's share of the distributive fund is $21,037 and the check received from State Auditor Andrew Russell also includes $266.44 additional interest. The fund received by this county this year is considerably larger than for last year. This is due to the fact that the legislature at its last session increased the total fund by $2,000,000.

The money received by Supt. Vasconcellos will be distributed among township treasurers and by them in turn sub-divided among the school districts, the amount to be received by each school depending upon the school census.

The money is distributed according to the federal census of persons of school age, and thus the smaller counties of the state do not fare as well as do the larger counties. Morgan county last year received $27,657.90 with interest of $234.32.

FORMER RESIDENT OF WHITE HALL DIES.

White Hall, March 21.—Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Amy Sharpe, aged 46 years, will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday in the home of F. M. Winters on East Bridgeport street, and the burial will be in the White Hall cemetery. The discourse will be delivered by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the M. E. church.

Mrs. Sharpe died suddenly Monday morning in the home of her brother W. G. Hill, No. 2614 Eads avenue, St. Louis, where she had made her home for the past two months, and she is the last of her own immediate family. Two daughters, who had attained womanhood and were splendidly employed in the commercial telegraph service of the Western Union in Kansas City, died during the past two years. Florence in June 1920, and Sarah last December. The family was located in Kansas City for a number of years. The deceased's maiden name was Hill, daughter of the late George Hill, at one time an extensive stoneware manufacturer of White Hall, and an architect who planned both the Methodist and Presbyterian churches of this city. Two brothers of Mrs. Sharpe survive, they being George Hill, connected with the First National Bank of White Hall and W. G. Hill of St. Louis. A sister Mrs. Sarah Prindle, resides with her son in Chicago.

FORMER RESIDENT WRITES FROM NEBRASKA

Charles S. Jones Writes of Recollections of City After Absence of About Forty Years.

A number of Morgan county people will be interested in reading the following letter from Charles S. Jones, now resident in Clarkson, Neb., and a former resident of this city. Mr. Jones left Jacksonville almost forty years ago but has many pleasant recollections of the city. The former resident has a number of relatives here:

Clarkson, Nebraska, March 19, 1922.

Dear Journal:

After a lapse of many years, I have rejoined the family of Journal readers. Since I left Jacksonville in 1883, many changes have taken place, both there and here. It was to know something of the changes about the old home county, that I first decided to see the Journal again. I found first, that the Journal has become exclusively a daily, and when I noticed the quality of the paper, the change seemed a wise one, altho I miss the Weekly, which we read for years in Morgan county.

Many names are well known to me. Some schoolmates' names are to be found, as well as several acquaintances and a few relatives.

Of the immediate family of Cyrus Jones, I am the only one remaining. Martha, the oldest child died in 1887; Robert, the oldest son, a minister, in 1893; my father in 1905; Howard, a professor in the Lincoln Medical College in 1909; my mother in 1912; and Frances, the second daughter, in 1916. The younger generation are in Nebraska, Iowa and Idaho.

It is very seldom that I see a person from Morgan or Sangamon county. It seems that people do not leave that part of the country. The Morgan county colony in Richardson county, of this state, has stood together well for all these years, but are now counted with the natives. There are many Illinois people here, but they are, almost invariably, from the northern part of the state. The only recent exceptions are an editor in a neighboring town, who was well acquainted in the county of Macomb, a lady who formerly lived near (not in) Egypt, and Edwin Ward, formerly of Sinclair.

I have been much interested in the improvements that Illinois has made in her roads. I remember certain spots which could have been better in years gone by. But, all in all, the memories of the old home county are among the bright places and will always remain so.

CHARLES S. JONES.

MARCUS REVUE CLAIMS PRETTIEST GIRLS.

Wherever the Marcus show has played this season, the press has been unanimous in proclaiming the "Cluck-Cluck" girls to be the prettiest, "peppiest" portrayals of pulchritude, that has toured the country in a decade.

The show comes to the Grand Friday night. The "Cluck-Cluck" girls are known everywhere as the "Marcus Peaches," and individually and collectively they live up to the name. With fifteen distinct changes of costumes for that many big show numbers, there is ample opportunity for the "Peaches" to display their beauty and ability to the fullest scope.

This does not signify that the Marcus Show is just a beauty show, for in addition to a beautiful chorus, there is a real plot running through the snappy travesties, that can be followed easily from beginning to end. With the Reno Divorce Court burlesque, the Aeroplane Taxi Service and the Chicken Farm as a background, the author has found much material upon which to build many humorous scenes, that carry along much clever dialogue and laugh making situations.

The Marcus Revue will play here at the Grand Theatre, Friday evening March 24.

Wishing for sleep
is a poor way to get it

A LITTLE wisdom in the daytime is a better assurance of rest than any amount of anxious wishing when nerves are a-jangle at night.

What you do at noon often has more influence on sleep than what you want and hope for, at midnight.

Coffee's drug element, caffeine, whips up the nerves, and when its use is continued there's usually a penalty which no amount of mental effort can avoid.

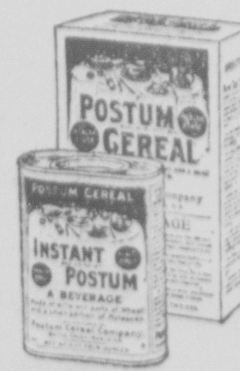

The part of wisdom, as so many thousands have found, is to turn away from nerve-stimulation and adopt rich, delicious Postum as the mealtime drink. Postum delights the taste, but brings no disturbance to nerves or digestion. Even the little children can share in the enjoyment of Postum at any meal.

It's better to anticipate warnings than to be driven by them.

It's better to encourage and preserve sound nerves and complete health than to listen to the clock ticks at night and say, "I wish!"

You can get Postum wherever good food or drink is sold and served. An order today may be the beginning, for you, of the great satisfaction and comfort which so many others have found in Postum.

Your grocer has both forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

ENTERTAINMENT
EVERY EVENING AT AUTO SHOW

Crowds at Coming Exposition Will Not Want for Lack of Amusement—Show Opens Next Monday.

Automobiles are not all you will see, and automobile gossip is not all you will hear at the annual Automobile Show and Merchants' Exposition which will be held at the Auto Inn in Jacksonville March 27 to April 1. Of course automobiles will be the featured subject at the show, but there will be plenty of entertainment for many different tastes. The entertainment committee realizes that in attracting a large crowd each day and night, it must amuse the visitors as well as show them an elaborately decorated area filled with automobiles of latest models.

Entertainment each night during the show will be the best. Several at Jacksonville's lively organizations have agreed to do their share in making the show crowds have a good time. There will be a grand opening on the first night, with a group of prominent speakers. It is considered likely that Governor Len Small will be in attendance Monday night, March 27, and deliver an address. This will be the governor's first visit to Jacksonville since he acquired the office.

The entertainment schedule for the remainder of the week is:

Tuesday night—American Legion.

Wednesday night—Woodmen and Royal Neighbors.

Thursday night—United Commercial Travelers.

Friday night—The Elks.

Saturday night—Open feature evening.

The Radio Programs.

Have you ever heard a radio program coming through space from a broadcasting station, hundreds of miles away? Probably you've heard a good deal about these radio entertainments during the last few months, but haven't had opportunity to enjoy one yourself. If you visit the automobile show in all probability you can hear one of these programs, as plans are under way to install a powerful radio set at the Auto Inn for special service during the show.

It will be an Westinghouse radio outfit, with equipment to produce a very loud tone.

If the set is installed, a special program will be sent out one evening from a station in Chicago. On other nights the visitors will hear the regular radio programs. The entertainment committee hopes to provide this feature, which will be a drawing card in itself.

The middle of the week will bring much activity at the Auto Inn. Decorating work will begin in charge of an expert from the O'Brien Decorating company of Springfield. The decorations will be as attractive in every way as those of last year.

Few Spaces Remain.

Business men who wish to have displays at the show will lose out if they don't act soon. Only a few spaces are left, and these will be taken by large out-of-town firms if Jacksonville firms do not speak for them. The show management is reserving these spaces for local interests, but will sell them the last of this week if they are not taken. It is the custom of large firms to ascertain the probable success of shows before taking out space. If there has been a large sale of display space, they come in at the last minute.

Persons wishing to secure display space should communicate at once with J. F. Claus.

The following individuals and firms have taken out space for the show: John G. Berger Motor company, J. F. Claus Motor company, Howard Zahn, Charles M. Strawn, Deppe, McNamara & Houston, Babb & Gibbs, Lukeman Motor company, German Brothers, R. T. Cassell, E. W. Brown, Jr., Bert Young, Haas Electric company, L. F. LEASES CHAMPION STALLION OF GREENE COUNTY.

White Hall, March 21.—"The Extension Messenger" published by the University of Illinois, contains important items from farm bureaus and other sources of agricultural information. The last number contains a reference to the leasing of the Champion Percheron Stallion Wolfington to Tazewell county, reported by C. A. Atwood as follows: "This stallion is the property of W. S. Corsa of White Hall. Tazewell county Percheron breeders feel much elated over the fact that they are so fortunate as to be able to arrange this co-operative project with Mr. Corsa."

EX-SERVICE MEN

Cases at State Hospital are Being Given Attention—Work Being Done Under Government Supervision

A number of representatives from the Veterans' Bureau in Chicago are in the city and are working in co-operation with the local Red Cross in checking up the cases of ex-service men at the state hospital. The men compose what is known as a "Clean Up Squad" and are rating the cases of the world war vets who are receiving government compensation and treatment at the local hospital. Dr. Doolin is at the head of the squad and his assistants are Messrs. Nelson and Henneghan.

The purpose of the work now being conducted is to get the ratings of the men and determine whether or not they are receiving the right kind of compensation. The Chicago men have with them the original files of the bureau and are comparing the records with those kept by the hospital and the Red Cross. The question of total and temporary disability is taken up and determined by the medical ratings and other rating given in individual cases. Miss Katherine Forward, executive secretary of the Morgan County Red Cross, is working with the representatives of the Chicago office and co-operating in checking up the cases.

One of the important reasons for the great success of Calumet lies in the fact that it contains a small amount of white of egg which makes it possible to keep fresh goods on the dealers' shelves at all times.

Baking Powder that does not contain white of egg cannot easily be tested for leavening strength outside of the chemical laboratory. Calumet which contains a small amount of white of egg can be tested right on the grocer's counter or in the housewife's kitchen. That's one reason why Calumet is the biggest selling brand on earth today.

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Pure Food Authorities.

Use Calumet—the baking powder that contains a small amount of white of egg—it means protection against the possibility of using a baking powder that does not have the necessary leavening strength. You save when you buy it—you save when you use it.

First Cost Looms Big, But Final Cost of Doing Work Again and Doing it Right Frequently overlooked

The owner who does not care what a job costs is a rare article.

When you take your car to a garage to have work done, do you see the man in charge and present your version of your trouble? Do you take the pains to look into the personnel of the mechanics, and the nature and style of equipment available to do the work on your car?

The servicing of various makes of cars is not a "hit and miss" business; it is a science, and requires brains and experience to do it successfully.

The First School.
 The writer yesterday came across the statement, in one of the somewhat remote histories-tell of Morgan, that Judge William Thomas taught the first school in the county. Judge Thomas did many good things for us, and this writer would only add to his glories; but he did not get here till 1826; when he did teach the first school in Jacksonville.

Reference has previously been made in this column to a letter written by Mrs. Asenath K. Munday, from Brighton, this state, in 1879, in which she stated that her sister taught the first school in the county "in a log cabin without any doors or windows, in 1821." The credit is due Miss Kellogg, and she must have been Col. Seymour Kellogg, who, with his brother Elisha Kellogg, were the first white American settlers of Morgan county.

The Sewing Society.
 Mr. Eames, in his history, 1885, says: "As the Jacksonville Sewing Society was the first organization of the ladies in Jacksonville, x x x it is proposed that a regular history of the events x x x be written and embodied x x x in the 14th report of the Jacksonville Sewing Society," quoting from the record.

"A notice having been given by the Rev. John M. Ellis, the Jacksonville Sewing Society was organized the 10th day of August, 1830, in the log school house in the south east quarter of town, the only meeting house in the place. It is claimed that this was 'the first female organization' in the state.

A REMARKABLE CAREER

The friends and associates of Miss Augusta Mitchell, daughter of Prof. B. F. Mitchell, of the Academy, will be interested in this notice, of her husband, from the Marshall (Mo.) Democrat-News:

Obituary.
 William Putsch was the fourth child of Frederick William and Elise Katrine (Kelderman) Putsch and was born in Annen in the Province of Westphalia, Prussia, on May 15, 1831, and died in his home in Marshall, Mo., March 11, 1922, being 90 years, 9 months and 26 days old.
 He came to America in the fall of 1849, to the home of an uncle in Northern Illinois. With his uncle he came in the early '50s to Arrow Rock in Salina County, Mo., where he continued to reside for about 45 years, except while he was absent in the Confederate army, almost the entire time of the war between the states. At Arrow Rock he followed several lines of business, spending several years in the bank at that place, and afterward engaging in mercantile business. Here, on February 18, 1868, he was married to Miss Augusta Mitchell, to which union there were born nine children, six of whom grew to maturity. They are Ernest and William M., who reside in Marshall; Lillian J., of Silver City, New Mexico; Harry C., and Mrs. Minnie A. Bowers, of DeWitt, Ark., and Mrs. Katrine Guthrie, who preceded her father to the world of spirits about seven years ago.

In 1861 Mr. Putsch confessed his faith in Christ in a meeting conducted by Rev. Mr. Bennett, and at once connected himself with the M. E. church, South, in which communion he continued to the end of his life and in which he served faithfully in the many positions to which he was called. He was regular in his attendance on all the services of his church, the Sabbath School, and prayer meetings, as well as the preaching services. Before entering the church he connected himself with the Masonic fraternity in which at different times he filled nearly every office in the gift of the lodge. He was also an Odd Fellow and many think he was the oldest in the state.

In 1897 he moved to Marshall, where his home was until the end. In 1896 he was elected treasurer of Saline County, which office he held for two terms introducing improvements in the conduct of the office. For about 15 years he has been secretary of Farmer's Mutual Insurance Co. of this county. Last fall he retired from active business though it is not many days since he ceased to be found helping somebody else with his work. His has been a long busy and beneficent life. He rests and his works do follow him.

The funeral was conducted from the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by his pastor. The interment was in the cemetery.

WARNING ISSUED TO BEVERAGE DEALERS.
 G. W. Schwann, Collector of Internal Revenue has recently issued the following notice:

The U. S. Government issues final warning to manufacturers of beverages, and to owners of soda fountains, ice cream parlors, and similar places of business.
 Under the new Beverage Law that went into effect January 1st, 1922, any person or firm manufacturing beverages or making their own syrups, or carbonic acid gas used in connection with the sale of soft drinks, etc., was required to make application for registry, and secure certificate of registry, to be posted in a conspicuous place at their place of business. That failure on the part of such persons to apply for and secure a certificate before February 1st, would result in the assessment of a severe penalty, provided for by law in the sum of not less than $1,000 for each offense.

To give all persons or firms a final opportunity to register without incurring the penalty, the Department has extended the time in which taxpayers already in business may file application for registry, to April first 1922, which means that all persons or firms engaged in the manufacture and sale of beverages and constituent parts thereof, who are not on record in this office as having applied for and secured a registration certificate will be subject to a penalty of $1,000.

This is the Department's final warning.

ROADHOUSE NOW HAS CREW DISPATCHER.

Roadhouse, March 20. — The creation of the office of crew dispatcher at Roadhouse has proven to be a highly satisfactory arrangement, after the experience of a week. The day position has been assigned to Donald Sneed and night to J. C. Piper. They come from the ranks of clerks, and were chosen for qualifications and good record service with the company.

The new double track between Roadhouse and Manchester is now in full service, and plans are now under way for extending the double track from Manchester to Murfreesville this summer, from where the divergence of the air line and the Jacksonville line give practically a double track to Bloomington and Chicago. The street just put in service extends from Manchester to the first crossing west of the depot at Roadhouse. No information is obtainable as to the double tracking west from Roadhouse. It is said that the company desires to carry double-tracking west to Quincy Junction the east approach to the Mississippi river bridge, and that estimates call for an expenditure of a million dollars; that when the million dollars are available the work will proceed west. From Louisiana, Mo., to Glasgow, Mo., the line forms the Louisiana and Missouri River R. R., of which the late A. B. Gregory of White Hall was a director. The president of the C. & A. company, Mr. W. C. Bierd, was recently seated as a director of this leased portion of the C. & A. system. It is not likely that the C. & A. will consider double-tracking west of Louisiana until they have obtained ownership of the Louisiana & Missouri River R. R. and it is further understood that the C. & A. sees an advantage in placing the western terminal at Glasgow, Mo., instead of Slater, where it is at present.

WHEAT, CORN AND OATS TAKE DROP
By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 21.—Decided down turn in wheat today resulted chiefly from lack of any aggressive buying. The market closed heavy, 13c to 3½c lower, with May $1.34 to $1.34½ and July $1.17½ to $1.18. Corn lost 1½ to 1½c and oats ½c to ¾c. In provisions the outcome varied from unchanged figures to 2½c to 25c.

Sentiment in the wheat pit was more inclined to the bearish side than for some days past although for the most part the selling was of only a scattered sort. Buyers appeared to be especially hesitant because immediate foreign needs had been filled and that Argentina wheat could be obtained in Europe much cheaper than shipments from the United States or Canada. Besides the domestic drop outlook was reported as excellent and primary receipts considerably in excess of the amount a year ago.

With the United States visible supply of wheat larger than at the corresponding time last year and with the world available supply also showing an increase the course of prices continued downward through the session. Rallies were transient and apparently due to the main to shorts collecting profits. Stages of shipping call weakened the price of corn and oats. In addition planting of the new crop of corn was reported as well underway in Texas.

Provisions taken as a whole were lower in line with hogs.

Motor Lubricants for 30 Million People

REFINING crude petroleum to produce a multiplicity of useful products is a highly specialized branch of industry.

The refining of gasoline and the manufacture of lubricating oils each require special treatment. Motor lubricants are made from specially selected crude and the portions of such crude best adapted for high quality motor oils are extracted during the first operations of refining.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of its achievements; proud of its enviable record as a manufacturer of gasoline, and equally proud of its record as a manufacturer of lubricants for all types and classes of machinery.

During 1921 nearly 25 million gallons of Polarine, the perfect motor oil, were manufactured and sold.

This enormous gallonage went to the consumer with the unqualified guarantee of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) that no better lubricant for an internal combustion engine could be made.

Lubricating oil is the most vital factor in conserving your car investment. In making definite recommendations for lubricating your car this Company realizes the importance to you, and to itself, of knowing exactly what each machine requires.

The responsibility of the Standard Oil Company, (Indiana) is emphasized when you consider that in the territory served there are more than 3 million automotive vehicles under registration. These machines represent a total investment of more than 2 billion dollars.

Every drop of motor oil manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is made to meet definite requirements worked out in the Company's laboratories by skilled chemists, refiners and lubricating engineers who have given careful study to the technical problems and their practical application under working conditions, which the oil must meet.

It is because they have given such painstaking attention to every detail of manufacture and application that the Company has been able to produce Polarine, the perfect motor oil.

It is this painstaking attention to every detail, in every branch of its business, that has made this Company a leader in the industry.

It is by such sustained, conscientious, enthusiastic effort, to keep faith with its patrons, that this Company has won the confidence, esteem and respect of the public it serves.

WILL MAKE PLANS FOR SPRING OPENING

The Trade Extension Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet this morning at 9:30 o'clock in the C. of C. rooms to complete plans for the Spring Opening and window display which will be held during the week of March 27th, the same week in which the Auto Show and Merchants' Exposition will be held.

It has been suggested that all windows be kept draped until 7 o'clock of the opening night of the show and at this time when the boulevard lights around the square are turned on, the coverings will be taken from the windows and the display of spring merchandise shown.

At this meeting there will also be discussion of plans for the future activities of the Trade Extension committee. It is possible that some extension tours will be made during the coming season and that other ways of advertising Jacksonville as a trading center will be used.

"Gatty Sellars is admitted the worlds master descriptive organist; as a composer of tone-poems for recording purposes for the king of instruments he stands alone." Saturday night at Northminster. Tickets Brady Bros and Gilbert's Drug Store, 50c.

FAMOUS ORGANIST COMING.

The visit of England's great organist, Gatty Sellars, to the Northminster church next Saturday evening is arousing widespread interest.

Gatty Sellars, the great English organist-composer, was born in 1877 and received his training at Peterborough Cathedral and from a well known professor of the Royal Academy of Music, London. It was through being heard in Switzerland, however, that he obtained his first engagement at the Queen's Hall London concerts, appearing with Agnes Nichols, Kirby Lunn and Sir Charles Santley. His first appearance in Europe were with Albani, Busoni, Marchesi, and in the same series of concerts as Paderewski, Kubelik and Dr. Hans Richter, etc.

Well known as a composer, one of his compositions was selected as a test piece at the National Band Concert, at the Crystal Palace, for performance by the massed band of 3,000 performers. Mr. Sellars is a son of the Rev. S. Sellars, his mother being formerly Miss Gatty, a name well known in the music circles through the reputation of Sir Alfred Squire Gatty, Principal King of Arms. His program is the most unique in the annals of musical history in America.

WILL TALK AT FARM BUREAU

Professor J. C. Hackelman of the University of Illinois Department of Agriculture will make an address at the Farm Bureau office this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Prof. Hackelman will talk on "The selection of Disease Free Seed Corn."

In the afternoon at one thirty o'clock Prof. W. P. Flint, chief field entomologist of the university, will make an address on "Fighting the European Corn Borer and Chinch Bug." It is expected that a large number of Morgan county farmers will attend these meetings as the speakers are two of the best known agricultural authorities in the state.

Thursday afternoon at one thirty o'clock in the Farm Bureau office there will be a meeting of women for the purpose of organizing the Co-operative Egg Marketing Exchange.

E. C. Fayert of Springfield was a professional caller in Jacksonville yesterday.

SENIORS WILL PUT ON STUNT

Members of the Senior class of the high school will put on a stunt in assembly this morning to advertise the senior play, "Miss Somebody Else." The play will be given Friday evening, March 31st and will be a very clever little comedy. The coaching is in the hands of Miss Adele Shelah and the cast is working hard at rehearsals every day. The stunt this morning will be for the purpose of getting up enthusiasm for the production. The tickets for the play were put in the hands of members of the different classes last evening and the advance sale of tickets has begun. The tickets will be 50c and 75c and some of the seats will be reserved.

"Snow White," the photoplay given last night at the high school, drew a large audience and was one of the most attractive pictures of the series. It was a dramatization of the popular fairy tale and was received with enthusiasm. There are three remaining films of the series and if the crowds continue to be as large as recently it is probable that enough money will be raised with which to purchase the machine for the high school. The remaining pictures of the series County Good Roads Association Jules Verne's "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," and "Squire Hawkins' Stories," by James Whitcomb Riley.

W. H. Fuller will sell 50 head of horses and mules Saturday, March 25th at Hale & Evans' Barn.

Clement Reine of Carrollton spent the day in the city Tuesday visiting with friends.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR REVEALS HEALTH SECRET

Tells of Wonderful Remedy That Has Kept Him Fit for Thirty Years

The Civil War ended more than fifty years ago, and the veterans of that great conflict are rapidly passing. The soldiers of that period endured many hardships, were exposed to the elements and in many cases, were ill fed. These conditions led to chronic ailments of all kinds, such as rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, constipation, heart trouble and diseases of the kidneys and liver.

One veteran, Mr. Abram

Arnold, R.F.D. No. 2, Campbell, N. Y., now in his 77th year and hale and hearty, tells how he has kept himself in good health. He writes:

"I have made use of Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines for 25 or 30 years and during that time they have never failed to do all that is recommended of them. I am a veteran of the Civil War—almost 77 years old, and was through fifteen hard fought battles, but am still living with the help of Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills. I have a bad heart, and find these pills of wonderful benefit for this trouble. Anyone wishing further particulars may write me, and I will gladly reply, as I want people to know of this wonderful remedy."

You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on each box. This is a trade mark for your protection against imitations. — Advertisement. 3
